Announcing Pol Sembrano

The Artist

We often return to music for the emotional support and reflection needed to get us through difficult times in our lives. These times call for a reality that often goes beyond the mundane and into a deeper cave of exploration. A place where others have been, but few have documented. We are in those times now, as a planet, as a people.

It is time to reflect on the little things that change us and through that change help us embark on a journey of understanding and growth. It is time for music like Pol Sembrano. For hearing with our heart and seeing with our soul. In his own words, “Musically, the tunes are melodic and contain plenty of hooks which will hopefully be remembered by the listeners”. But the hooks are only part of the power, listen to the lyrics and you may just find part of yourself and... others, in the words he delivers through driving melodic structures.

We are happy to share with you the music of Pol Sembrano! The first four tracks are from his self-titled debut album, now available on various music platforms such as Spotify, YouTube and Apple Music. Please view his website at www.polsembranomusic.com or log on to the music platforms mentioned. Share the address with friends and family and enjoy!
